no "cure-all" humbug, but is made for just one purpose—to cure the weaknesses, painful disorders and irregularities of the womanly organism. It is

THE ONE REMEDY for these allments, sold by druggists, devised and gotten up by a regularly graduated physician of vast experience in treating woman's peculiar diseases and is carefully adapted to work in harmony with her delicate organization, by an experienced and skilled specialist in her maladies.

THE ONE REMEDY for woman's ailments, sold by druggists, which contains neither alcohol (which to most women is the rankest poison) or other injurious or habit-forming

THE ONE REMEDY for women, the composition of which is so perfect and good that its makers are not afraid to print its every ingredient, in plain English on its outside bottle-wrapper, and attest the correctness of the same under oath-thus taking its users into their full confidence, and warranting physicians in prescribing it in their worst cases, which they do very largely.

It is foolish as well as dangerous to take medicine the composition of which you know nothing. Therefore, don't let a dishonest druggist prevail on you to accept a secret nostrum for this professionally approved medicine OF KNOWN COMPOSITION. Every ingredient in its make-up has the strongest indorsement of the leading medical men of all the several schools of practice. Send postal card request for free Booklet of same.

Every woman may write fully and confidentially to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., and may be sure that her case will receive careful, conscientious, confidential consideration, and that the best medical advice in the world will be given to her, absolutely free.

In addition to this free advice, Dr. Pierce will send a fine French cloth-bound copy of his great 1000-page book, "The Common Sense Medical Adviser," to any woman who will send 31 one-cent stamps to pay the cost of mailing only.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. They work in harmony with "Favorite Prescription" when needed as a gentle laxative. Sugarcoated, tiny granules, easy to take as candy.

COL GREEN'S SPORTY OFFER

How the Good-Natured Financier Got the Best of the Confidence Man.

Just because Col. E. H. R. Green is fat and looks good-natured, and has a sort of out-of-door air, some of the sharpers in New York had him sized up as easy when he first returned from Texas to take care of the properties of his mother, Mrs. Hetty Green, writes a correspondent. It may be, too, that the columel's breezy candor kind of coaxed the boys along a bit. He will talk on any subject when he feels like talking, with a frankness unusual in the banking fraternity, "Here's my old friend, Mr. Hinks," said the colonel the other night, at his hotel, grabbing at a well-dressed man, who was walking by without speaking. His old friend, Mr. Hinks, shrunk into himself and was obviously embarrassed. After a moment's talk he got away, and the colonel's well-padded sides shook. "Hinks Is one of 'em," said he. "I'd just landed in town when Hinks came up to me one night in the hotel. He had met me in Texas, he said. Soand-so had introduced him. I didn't remember him, but the name he men- head. tioned was that of a good friend of mine, and I thought maybe my memory was at fault. By and by he opened the trap. He told me of the good thing he had under cover, and that I could make a million dollars if I'd just put in a few thousands. It was a gold mine, and he had the gandiest maps and prospectuses D have ever seen. I listened to him until he not through. 'Hinks,' said I, just between friends, I've got a gold mine of my own that I want to sell. Now, I won't hav a mine, but I'll tell you what I'll do, I'll draw cards with you, the winner take both. That's all either is fit for " Colonel Green got another good laugh out of it. "There's a free masonry among these fellows, I think," said he. "No one has offered me a gold mine since."

MAKES $30,000 IN A DAY

"Telephone Boy" May Cause Stampede of Wall Street Pikers by His Luck.

As the result of the passage through bankruptcy of a local firm of stock trip tickets to the above places at brokers, James R. Keene's plunging "telephone boy" has been hauled into the limelight. An acrimonious controversy occurred in court as to whether he had made $30,000 or $50,-000 by taking advantage of the socalled Hocking pool. The "boy" insisted that he "cleaned up" only $30,-000 on that deal, and stuck to this statement. The airing of his market dealings is likely to cause a stampede into the "telephone boy" business, and give new encouragement to the thousands of pikers who bury their spare money in Wall street graves, selected through tips, secret information and boy's story a few dozen stories about the other telephone boys whose market operations have accumulated nothing for them but a series of diminutive tombstones. There are 999 of them to every successful piker. Indeed, if statistics mean anything, the man who puts his money into chicken-farming -almost hopelessly hazardous as that occupation is known to be-has a better chance of getting out whole than the telephone boy plunger and his associated speculationists. It is an unfortunate circumstance that the example of one successful clean-up has more weight with this endlessly recruited band of idealists than a hundred thousand failures .- New York
